Vice President Report: Ken (K8ENT) had nothing new to report

Technical Report: Josh (KE8CPD) reported that the mowers at the Morley site still need repairs, the battery did not get installed and has been returned.

Web Master Report: No report

PIO Report: No report.

Old Business:

- Key cards for the shack. Nate (N8THN) reported that everyone that need s them has been issued a card.
- Mowers at Morley Site. Mike (W8MW) spoke to the guys that he uses for other sites and they said Morley was to far for them to work on. Heckmans has been asked to survey the site and provide a quote. We do need ot get the grass mowed soon. A motion was made and carried unanimously to spend up to $250 to get the grass mowed. We will address the mower repairs again once we have an idea on how much it will cost to have a service mow.

New Business:

- CMEN Grant. Mike (W8MW) reported that the Central Michigan Emergency Network team applied for and received a $250K grant from ARDEC. They will be using this gran money to build out a microwave network around the state to allow for better communications back to the State EOC in Lansing.
- Board Elections. It is time to start thinking about board positions for next year. Mike (W8MW) has asked to potentially be replaced as Treasurer as he has a number of other commitments this year and isn't sure he can give as much time to the club.

Meeting adjourned 7:40pm: Minutes by Secretary Tad K8TCS
